

THE WATERFRONT RED WINES

ROSE

In the tradition of the Mediterranean coast of France, dry Rosé has become popular among a number of vintners in California. Refreshing examples are made combining the hearty components of red wine with the crispness of white wine. Fresh tasting strawberry and citrus

PINOT NOIR, PINOT MEUNIER & PINOTAGE

PINOT NOIR · 2000 years of cultivation in the Cote D'Or of France has set high standards for the world to emulate. The cool regions of California & Oregon are ideal for growing Pinot Noir with pronounced flavors of strawberry, raspberry & smoke

PINOT MEUNIER · French for 'miller' due to the white underside of the leaves that resemble sifted flour. Emphasis on bright, red fruit flavors.

PINOTAGE · Created in South Africa, a cross of Pinot Noir and the Rhone grape Cinsault and now grown in California. Spice, plum & pepper.

BARBERA, CHARBONO & SANGIOVESE

BARBERA · Native to Piedmont, Italy, this varietal is know for its bright characteristics of cherry and soft tannins.

CHARBONO · Mention this varietal among old school Napa vintners and you will hear about the legendary Inglenook Charbonos of the seventies!

Thankfully a number of vintners including Robert Foley carry on the tradition of making these jammy & spicy wines.

SANGIOVESE · The principal grape grown in the Tuscany region of Italy. In California it exhibits flavors of black cherry, plums and cinnamon

MERLOT, MALBEC & CABERNET FRANC

MERLOT · Considered an offspring of Cabernet Franc and related to Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot adds body and softness to Bordeaux blends. The palate is rich with flavors of cherry, plum and chocolate.

MALBEC · And its Italian cousin Piedierrosso, originated from the grape Cot in the Cahor region of France. Complimentary to a number of Bordeaux blends Malbec adds dark color, plum-like flavors and complexity. On its own it shows ripe fruit flavors of plums and blackberry.

CABERNET FRANC · Related to Cabernet Sauvignon and one of the five traditional grapes of Bordeaux. Aromatic flavors of cherry and plum
